

Renmore Residents Association

Code of Conduct

1. CONTEXT

Renmore Residents Association is committed to ensuring that members' involvement with Renmore Residents Association is a positive and meaningful experience. Therefore, members are asked to commit to a Code of Conduct that promotes a positive environment. Where members operate outside this Code of Conduct, they may be asked to discontinue their association with Renmore Residents Association. This document outlines the Code of Conduct applying to all individuals acting on behalf of Renmore Residents Association including but not limited to:

- Committee Members
- General Members (Holding a current membership card)

2. CODE OF CONDUCT

Renmore Residents Association members agree to:

- Represent Renmore Residents Association with professionalism, dignity and pride, and be responsible for conducting themselves with courtesy and appropriate behaviour
- Complete accepted tasks and comply with communication protocols in this regard
- Seek support for their role by participating in meetings and training opportunities
- Display respect and courtesy for all members and any person's they engage with on behalf of the Renmore Residents Association
- Keep personal opinions and actions separate from those made as a member of the Renmore Residents Association
- Avoid conduct which would jeopardise effectiveness of the Renmore Residents Association
- Declare conflict of interest or any such circumstances as may be viewed by others as conflicting as soon as it arises

The following behaviours are considered to be in breach of the Code of Conduct:

- Use of vulgar or inappropriate language
- Soliciting of gratuities, gifts or bequests for personal or professional benefit

- Discriminate on the basis of race, colour, religion, sex, age, national origin, marital status or disability, and/or sexual orientation

I have read and accept the conditions of the Renmore Residents Association Code of Conduct.

Signature

Date